

A very well known Syrian poet, called Nizar Qabbani, was once asked: If you were not a poet, what would you like to be?
He answered: I would love to be a bird in a Scandinavian country, because then, I will know for sure, that no one will interrupt my singing w/ a bullet in my throat.
- If this poet comes to life again, today and find out about this prison he will be so disappointed.
- From a former prisoner, I feel your pain my brothers, and I hope it will be healed soon.
